

Local Matters.

Thursday Morning, 111 May 12, '59.
Meeting of the Shelby County Democratic Association.

The members of this association are requested to meet at their hall, 12th and Main, at 8 o'clock p.m., over Stinck's saloon. A prompt and punctual attendance.

W. H. CARROLL, President.

Memphis, May 7, 1859.

New Citizens.—On Tuesday the Mayor contracted for the building of seven new houses for citizens.

Woodard's House.—The five company No. 1 contractors building a new engine house on the ground they are now occupying, at a cost of three thousand dollars.

Despatched.—The most engaged to take care of Court Square has been dismissed for a very short time, the principal of which was unable to resign.

Brennan's Court.—There were but five delinquents before the Recorder yesterday. Fines to the amount of $30 were assessed, $20 of which was paid. There were but two additions to the roll.

Mr. Winter.—There was no appearance of the sheriff whipping before the Recorder yesterday; that of Patrick Casey. The proof was not sufficient to convict the accused, however, and he was discharged.

Bernardine.—This celebrated saint is wanted by the Roman Catholic church, from silk, raised by the slaves, and from gold and silver, in various fabrics, and from kid gloves, without infusing texture or color.

Fitzgerald's Parade.—The friends are in high spirits about their recent parade, for which they now expect a large turnout.

Mr. W. L. Smith.—We will coincide the parade with the 1st of June, and the public will be put in possession of some means of judging when they should vote for.

ENTRANCE TO THE FAIR.—I have noticed with attention your suggestions (contained in your note of the 8th Inst.), in relation to the various aspects to the Municipality of our city, being adopted by the citizens to their hands.

The Memphis deputed trustee informed us, that he had a majority of his constituents desirous that every aspect of the financial department of the Mayor's office.

Very truly yours,

W. H. PERKINS, President.
